examiners or other professions relating to insurance companies, banks, savings and loans, and credit unions come together for training and to share and exchange information on a formal and informal level.

SOFE was established in 1973 to establish a strict code of professional standards for members engaged in the examination of financial institutions, to promote uniform ethical standards that will engender employer and public confidence to the degree that those interested can identify professionally qualified practitioners, and to promote and enforce minimum requirements of conduct, training, and expertise for members engaged in financial examination.

Provide the information listed on our membership application and submit it to our executive offices: by E-Mail to sofe@sofe.org, or by mail to the Society of Financial Examiners, 3505 Vernon Woods Drive, Summerfield, NC 27358.
