LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Through lectures, roundtable discussions and interactive formats, participants in the Society of Financial Examiners' 2012 Career Development Seminar (hereafter referred to as SOFE 2012 CDS) will learn of the latest developments, current issues and new solutions in the regulation of insurance companies. Issues will include the risk-focused examination procedures, fraud detection, IT development and the latest legislation.

PREREQUISITES

This seminar is offered for Intermediate and Advanced Financial Examiners. No advanced preparation or prerequisites are necessary, as this seminar will provide group-live delivery updates and overviews of knowledge to which examiners are already exposed.

CPE/CRE CREDITS

The Society's Career Development Seminar is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing education on the National Registry of CPE

Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE Credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors, through its Website: www.learningmarket.org.

ATTENDANCE TRACKING

SOFE will be tracking session attendance electronically. Each attendee badge will be scanned upon entering the session. In order to receive CRE/CPE credits, the attendee's badge will need to be scanned at the door.

PRESENTATION MATERIALS

Presentation materials will not be available at CDS in hard-copy or on CD. CD's that have been provided in the past will not be provided this year. Presentation materials will be made available on the SOFE Web site shortly before the beginning of the conference and will be retained there for a short period after the conference.

- Sunday night social including hor d'oeuvres and host beer and wine bar, as well as entertainment.

Please note that spouse/guest/youth registrations do not include breakfasts, lunches or coffee breaks with the conference participants. You may take advantage of the option to join the participants for these functions by registering for each of the individual functions you wish to attend by contacting SOFE.

FIRST-TIME ATTENDEE SPECIAL REGISTRATION RATE

Firms/departments that send two or more first time attendees to the 2012 SOFE CDS will receive a 25% discount on the applicable registration fee, regardless of membership. To register for this rate, please complete the appropriate box on the registration form and email a list of the names of the other first-time attendees from your firm or department that qualify for this discounted rate to sofe@sofe.org.

Also, please note that all first-time attendees are invited to attend the State Chair/First Time Attendee Social on Saturday, July 28th from 7 to 9 p.m. If you will be attending this function, please check the applicable box on the Registration form.

CDS SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS AVAILABLE

The Financial Examiners Education Foundation has provided SOFE with scholarship funds for a limited number of attendees for the 2012 CDS. These scholarship funds are intended for state and federal insurance regulators whose department or agency does not cover the cost of attending SOFE's CDS. The scholarship applicants shall be insurance regulators that are employed directly by a state, US territory, or federal government agency (i.e. contract examiners are not eligible). Applicants must be a member of SOFE in good standing. The scholarship funds cover only the registration fees and do not cover any travel or hotel related expenses. Written evidence of the fact that the governmental agency does not pay for CDS attendance shall be provided by the person in charge of the state or federal agency or his/her designee. For more information and an application, please go to www.sofe.org/CDS2012/scholarship.html. All applications are due by April 30.

AUGUST 1 & 2, 2012

Prevent Binary Bilking - Cyber Foren$ic$

When: Wednesday 1:00pm – 5:00pm &
Thursday 8:00am – 12:00pm

Topic: Prevent Binary Bilking - Cyber Foren$ic$

In this session, Mr. Kolthoff will be covering a systematic response to employee malfeasance and incidents of fraud and embezzlement. This sequence of activity should be considered as a strong practice for effective risk mitigation and a baseline for any organization's incident response practices utilizing both cyber forensic and HUMINT (Human Intelligence) techniques.

- Assist in establishing an executive response by
 - setting up a command center and directing all investigatory protocol for controlling information protection within the investigation.
 - on-going collection of all necessary and relevant historic, operational, and technical data to enable an effective and efficient examination.
 - conducting forensic analysis of all data to enable identification of evidentiary capability to move forward with identification of incident's root cause.
 - providing evidence for executive response in terms of prosecution, leveraging, or Human Resource action.

As part of the presentation, Jarrett will also provide real-world studies of his most recent cases; to include analyzing the various market studies on the insider threat.

Presenter: Jarrett Kolthoff, CISSP, Sans GIAC (GCFA), MS, BA, is the President and CEO of SpearTip, LLC, a corporate and cyber counterespionage consulting firm headquartered in St. Louis, and has more than 17 years of experience in the Information Security field for both government and corporate sectors. As a former Special Agent in the Military Intelligence Corps of the United States Army, Mr. Kolthoff has vast experience in cyber counterespionage, counterintelligence, and fusion cell analysis. He conducted key counterespionage investigations and security assessments in order to safeguard futuristic classified technology. His civil casework includes investigations in anti-trust lawsuits, embezzlement, collusion, theft of intellectual property and corporate secrets, as well as data security. He received a Letter of Accommodation by senior Pentagon officials upon completion of an intensive and thorough investigation that impacted U.S. national foreign policy.

 Jarrett Kolthoff, CISSP, Sans GIAC (GCFA), MS, BA – Spear Tip, LLC
 Mobile devices have quickly become the nexus of our daily lives and are often the primary driver that has increased the revenue of many companies. These mobile devices contain a tremendous amount of corporate secrets, although are vulnerable to theft and malware. The number of breaches has steadily been increasing; either through unintentional data loss, theft of intellectual property by competitors, rogue employees, or state-sponsored collection efforts. The risks associated with these devices need to be fully understood, so corporations can implement the appropriate compensating controls.

BREAKFAST ROUNDTABLES

B1-Reinsurance Basics: An Introduction for New Examiners and Review of Potential Transfer of Risk ‘Red Flags’

John Romano, CPA – ParenteBeard LLC

This session will provide examiners a brief introduction to the common types and coverages of P&C reinsurance as well as point out potential ‘red flags’ that may prohibit appropriate risk transfer and render the contract inadequate for full reinsurance benefit.

B2-IFRS and Its Possible Impact on Statutory Accounting and Financial Examinations

James E. Stangroom, CPA – Invotex Group

It is likely that International Financial Reporting Standards will have a significant impact on insurance companies as the IASB and the FASB establish joint standards on insurance contracts and financial instruments. This panel will advise attendees on the status of these emerging standards and on the potential statutory accounting and examination implications.

B3-How Analysts and Examiners Can Utilize Schedule P

David J. Macesic, ACAS, MAAA – INS Consultants, Inc.

The session will provide a description of Schedule P, which includes an explanation of the content and interpretation of Part 1. The uses of Parts 2, 3 and 4 will be discussed, along with the reconciliation of Schedule P to other Annual Statement items.

B4-The IT Examination: Relying on the Work of Others

Michael Morrissey, AES, CISA, CISSP – Examination Resources, LLC

Rachelle Gowins, CFE – Examination Resources, LLC

The session will explore the art and pitfalls of relying on CPA, internal audit and other third party documents in performing financial examinations. While these documents can add efficiency by reducing control testing, they are often produced for different purposes, and fail to address IT and financial risks related to insurance operations. This presentation is designed to engage attendees and improve the risk-focused methodology.

8:00am – 5:00pm

Spouse & Guest Hospitality Suite

8:55am – 10:25am

Sandra A. Bigglestone, CPA, CFE – State of Vermont - Dept. of BISHCA

Steven M. Chirico, CPA – A.M. Best Company

Lisa M. Poulin, ACI – Milliman, Inc.

Attendees will hear about the qualitative and quantitative aspects of analyzing captives and risk retention groups. Attendees will be presented with interesting data and statistics on the alternative insurance market and learn how that market might interact with the traditional insurance market.

B6-Business and Professional Ethics

Elaine R. Nissley, MBA, CISA, PMP, CCSA, CICA – McKonly & Asbury LLP

This is a presentation of the basic ethics principles along with scenarios for group discussion. The objective is to heighten examiners awareness of their professional ethics responsibilities and the internal controls required in insurance companies to provide an ethical business environment.

B7-Financial Examinations Software in the Cloud with Teammate R10

Jerry Link, MCSE, CCA – INS Regulatory Insurance Services, Inc.

Anthony C. Cardone, CPA, CFE – INS Regulatory Insurance Services, Inc.

This is a presentation on new technology available for the use of State Insurance Regulation including the use of new features in Teammate R10 and how to properly support the infrastructure for improved work process efficiencies.

B8-Risk Transfer Analysis Revisited and Revisions to the Credit for Reinsurance Models - Implications to the Insurance Industry and Regulators

Junjie (JJ) Pan, CPA, CFE, CPCU, FLMI – Invotex Group

Main topics will be covered with this presentation including: views on determining risk transfer supported by case studies; and updates/analysis with the newly passed revisions to the Credit for Reinsurance Model Law – potential impacts to the industry, state regulation and financial examinations.

10:25am – 10:45am Break

10:45am – 12:15pm BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Keith D. Wandel, Jr., CFE – Pennsylvania Insurance Department

Listen as we proceed with a walkthrough of the process of information assurance at a typical small insurance company.

C2-Analysis for Separate Accounts

David A. Vacca, CPA – NAIC

This session will explore the types of examination evidence gathered and which types can be considered most persuasive in supporting examination objectives.

C3-Industry Responses to Risk-Focused Examinations

Becky Meyer, CPA – NAIC

During this session, feedback that has been gathered from those in the industry directly affected by the risk-focused examination approach will be presented.

C4-Does ERM Fit into a Regulator's Alphabet Soup?

Mary Peter, CPA, CFE, CFE (Fraud) – Eide Bailly LLP

James Menck, CPA, CFE, CFE (Fraud) – Eide Bailly LLP

Enterprise Risk Management is a term that has been utilized to describe a wide array of risk and compliance initiatives within many industries today. This presentation will provide you with a review of where it began for insurance companies and how it has developed today. We will review common elements of a program that can be used for regulatory exams as environments and regulations change. A look at how risk focused exam, model audit rule and the developing ORSA requirements link to ERM will be discussed.

8:00am – 5:00pm

Spouse & Guest Hospitality Suite

8:55am – 10:25am

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

C5-Financial Condition Examiners Handbook Update

Bruce E. Jensen, CPA – NAIC

During this session, examiners will learn about the recent updates to the Financial Condition Examiners Handbook, as well as changes currently under consideration for adoption.

C6-Actuaries in Risk-focused Examinations

Randall Stevenson, ASA, MAAA, AIMR – Risk & Regulatory Consulting, LLC

(formerly RSM McGladrey, Inc.)

During this session, effective implementation of the actuarial function into the risk-focused process will be discussed, as well as increasing the coordination and communication between actuaries and financial examiners.

C7-Application Control Testing Through the Matrix

Francois Houde, CISA, AES – Carr, Riggs & Ingram, LLC

In this presentation we will explore how to integrate application control testing to streamline Phase 3 and reduce the financial examiners' workload. Most companies are now using information technology at all stages of the process. It's time to test the system and stop working around the box.

C8-Why Life Companies Use Captives

Sandra Bigglestone, CPA, CFE – State of Vermont - Dept. of BISHCA

Michael A. Mayberry, FSA, MAAA – Lewis & Ellis, Inc.

Neil A. Miller, CPA, CFE – Associate Commissioner, Maryland

Attendees will learn why life insurance companies use captive subsidiaries to reinsure excess reserves. An actuary will provide background and insight on reserving under AG38 and why it may be appropriate to finance excess reserves created by the AG38 calculation using a captive insurer. A lawyer will walk through structuring such a financing arrangement. A regulator will share a perspective on these types of arrangements.

10:25am – 10:45am Break

10:45am – 12:15pm BREAKOUT SESSIONS

C9-Prospective Risk Identification and Assessment

Bruce E. Jensen, CPA – NAIC

This session will focus on the importance of prospective risk assessment and evaluation in a risk-focused examination. Discussions will include identification of prospective risks, documentation of the prospective risk assessment using Exhibit V, and types of examination procedures that should be performed to address prospective risks identified. This session will also cover the testing of other than financial reporting risks on the risk assessment matrix.

C10-Solvency Modernization Update

Marlys Rulon, CPA, CVA – Eide Bailly LLP

Douglas Cash, CFE, CFI, CFCI, MBA – Eide Bailly LLP

The presentation will include an overview of Exhibit G and discuss effective interview techniques. The session will include real life fraud cases and how the breakdown in internal controls facilitated each case.

D7-The IT Specialist is Gone – Now What?

Francois Houde, CISA, AES – Carr, Riggs & Ingram, LLC

There often seems to be a disconnect between the IT Specialist and the financial examiners. Once the IT Specialist is gone, he's gone, although it shouldn't be that way. The objective of this presentation is to help financial examiners integrate and benefit from the IT Specialist's work beyond Phase 1.

D8-Examiners and Internal Audit – Understanding Each Other and Working Together

Robert D. Kasinow, CFE, ARE – Examination Resources, LLC

Tracy Stevenson – Examination Resources, LLC

A valuable step in an efficient risk-focused examination is considering the structure of an entities internal audit process and determining if the examiner can leverage off the work performed by the internal auditors. Also as the NAIC progresses towards Own Risk Solvency Assessments (ORSA) what should internal audits relationship be with the company risk management function and how that can assist the examiners.
