February 27, 2018

On behalf of The City of Indian Wells, welcome to the SOFE 2018 Career Development Seminar. It is a pleasure to host you at the Hyatt Regency Indian Wells, and I hope you may have the opportunity to enjoy our City’s many features during your stay.

We’re proud of the role that Indian Wells plays in hosting not only meetings and conferences such as yours, but also leisure visits by your members. Our blue skies, remarkable golf and tennis, and choice of dining, spa and cultural activities have made Indian Wells a favorite among travelers to the region.

We hope you take advantage of our award-winning Indian Wells Golf Resort for dining, golf and exceptional entertainment. The Golf Resort is in easy walking distance of your hotel. In the meantime, have a productive and enjoyable seminar. We’re honored that you have chosen us for your event.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Muzik
Mayor

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
Through lectures, roundtable discussions and interactive formats, participants in the Society of Financial Examiners’ Career Development Seminar (hereafter referred to as SOFE CDS) will learn of the latest developments, current issues and new solutions in the regulation of insurance companies. Issues will include critical risk categories, ORSA/ERM, risk-focused examination procedures, fraud detection, and IT developments.

CRE/CPE CREDITS
The Society of Financial Examiners is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE Credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its Website: www.learningmarket.org.

INSTRUCTIONAL DELIVERY METHOD - GROUP-LIVE
Program Level - This seminar is offered for Intermediate and Advanced Financial Examiners and Analysts.
Prerequisites - Previous professional experience in regulatory examination or analysis of insurance companies.
Advance Preparation - No advanced preparation is necessary.
Learning Objectives - After attending this event, participants will be able to:
• Recognize the impact of new developments in regulation, group supervision and solvency modernization initiatives on insurance company surveillance.
• Enhance risk-focused examination procedures through increased understanding of examination best practices, critical risk categories, and changes to the accreditation program.
• Effectively incorporate structured enterprise risk management and corporate governance assessments into insurance company examinations.
• Understand and identify risks to insurer investment portfolios and integrate analysis and follow-up procedures into the examination process.
• Effectively incorporate the IT General Controls Review into the risk-focused examination process.
• Understand Cybersecurity risks and their potential impact on regulatory examinations.

ATTENDANCE TRACKING
SOFE will be tracking session attendance electronically. Each attendee badge will be scanned upon entering the session. In order to receive CRE/CPE credits, the attendee’s badge will need to be scanned at the door.

PRESENTATION MATERIALS
Presentation materials will not be available at CDS in hardcopy or on CD. Presentation materials will be made available on the SOFE Website shortly before the beginning of the conference and will be retained there for a short period after the conference.
Registered Non-members may request a copy of presentation materials by emailing a request to sofe@sofe.org.

POTENTIAL CREDITS
Accounting ...........................................................................................................13.5
Auditing ................................................................................................................14.5
IT ........................................................................................................................18.5*
Behavioral Ethics ...............................................................................................5
Specialized Knowledge and Applications .....................................................23.5
Maximum number of CRE/CPE hours per attendee......................24*
Total number of CRE/CPE hours available ...........................................75*
* Exclusive of the 8 additional IT credits in the optional Extended Session

Registered SOFE members and Non-members attending the annual CDS event will have their attendance recorded via the badge scanning system. Members’ certificate of attendance will be issued automatically and it can be accessed through the Members Only Area of the SOFE website within 6 to 8 weeks subsequent to CDS. Non-Members seeking Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credits for other organizations may complete a “Request for Certificate of Attendance” form and email it to sofe@sofe.org or they may complete and turn in a “Request for Certificate of Attendance” form at the on-site CDS Registration Desk.

SPouse/Guest Sunday Social Registration
SOFE is pleased to offer SOFE Spouse/Guest registration for our Sunday Night Social. Children under the age of 13 may attend the Social without paying a registration fee. SOFE asks that all attendees (spouse/guest/child) for the Sunday Night Social register in order to attend.
Please note that spouse/guest/youth registrations do not include breakfasts, lunches or coffee breaks with the conference participants.

Sunday Night Social
The Social will be held at the exciting Indian Wells Golf Resort, which features a magnificent 53,000 square-foot clubhouse, a sumptuous buffet and special activities. You will enjoy amazing views, fantastic food and games for those who “shoot par” and those who have never held a golf club.
• Putting Course – closest to the pin competition
• Hole in one contest – Practice up as it is rumored to be a $1M prize
• SNAG (Starting New At Golf) Tic Tac Toe, Bocce ball
• Duck Pond Putting – trying to get the ball into a kiddie pool
This event promises to be a wonderful time for golfers and non-golfers alike.
Welcome to the 2018 SOFE Career Development Seminar! Our annual conference continues to be a great resource for members of the insurance regulatory community. I’d like to thank the CDS chairs, the dedicated professionals at Meeting Services, Inc. (MSI) and the many others that contribute their time and their hard work to make this event a continued success.

Our transition to MSI as the new management company for SOFE has gone extremely well. MSI is truly a business partner that SOFE can be proud of and rely on. I am certain that SOFE members are receiving the competent and friendly service that they deserve. When you see the MSI team members at CDS, thank them for their dedication, professionalism, and friendship to the Society.

We say goodbye to long-time friend and pro-bono counsel Bill Latza. Bill has served SOFE like nobody else over the past 20 years. Bill has taken a new role as Chief Compliance Officer and General Counsel with start-up insurer Lemonade, Inc. Bill has shared his experience, knowledge, and friendship and we thank him for his outstanding work for SOFE. Bill will be missed, but we are glad to welcome Fred Garsson as SOFE’s new pro-bono General Counsel. Fred started his career as an Associate under Bill at Stroock & Stroock & Lavan. Fred is currently the co-chair of the insurance practice at Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr. Please welcome Fred when you see him at CDS this year.

SOFE continues to invest in the updating and creation of its tests to enhance the value of our AES, AFE, and CFE designations. Members should be encouraged that the number of people taking SOFE tests and seeking SOFE designations is at a multi-year high.

Huge strides were made in ensuring the availability of text books for SOFE exams with the agreement with The Institutes to create a co-branded text book for CFE 3. This effort allows SOFE to control the content of the book and when it is updated rather than have to “react” to publisher versions. Also, the NAIC has proven to be a terrific partner in assisting with the writing and maintenance of the CFE 1 and AFE 4 exams. These initiatives will save members time and money!

SOFE continues to benefit from its partnership with the Financial Examiners Educational Foundation (FEEF). The FEEF scholarship program has been in place for several years, and this year we will have 24 state insurance regulators attending CDS using scholarship funds provided by FEEF.

I would like to thank the Executive Committee members for their dedication to the Society. The members of the Executive Committee give their time, talent, and treasure to improve the Society. The many changes and improvements that have occurred this year would not have happened without their commitment. A special thank you to Mark Murphy for answering countless 7:00am emails this past year.

Thank you to all SOFE members who serve on committees and share your time and expertise to strengthen the Society. I would encourage everyone to explore opportunities to volunteer with SOFE or other organizations as you will no doubt receive tremendous rewards and lasting friendships as I have.

Thank you to Mike Dinius of Noble Consulting Services, Inc. for his guidance and for allowing me to devote a tremendous amount of time to SOFE over the years. Mike is a true friend to SOFE and the regulatory community.

SOFE has had more than its share of changes this year and SOFE members can be proud of what was accomplished and the path that we are on as a Society. Thank you for allowing me to serve as the President of SOFE. Thank you for your participation and engagement with SOFE!

Respectfully,

Jim Kattman, CFE
President of the Society of Financial Examiners

CDS Scholarship Sponsor

The Financial Examiner Educational Foundation (FEEF) in conjunction with SOFE is sponsoring the Morty Mann Memorial Scholarship Program for regulators. This program allows qualified regulators to have their registration fees waived for the 2018 CDS.

SOFE thanks FEEF for their continued support of our educational programs.
The SOFE CDS Committee would also like to thank NOBLE CONSULTING SERVICES, INC. for their laptop donations. These laptops will be used by our presenters at this CDS and future seminars.

Qualifies as IT continuing education for the AES Designation
E = Ethics – Qualifies for Ethics continuing education for SOFE Designation
A key area of consideration for IT Examiners is whether the Company underwent a major system implementation during the examination period. Gaining assurance, even if utilizing the work of others, requires verifying the Company had adequate controls in place to mitigate key implementation risks.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

B9 - Internal Controls: What They Are, What They Aren’t, and What They Can Do to Mitigate Risk
John Hall • Hall Consulting, Inc.
In this session, we’ll explore the two components of any internal control - the control procedure itself and the critical thought process and behavior behind execution. You'll learn tips for how to evaluate the quality of important controls, not just their existence. And for participants interested in stepping up to the highest level of service, you’ll get three-steps to use any time you are trying to help others improve their control environment while honoring professional standards for objectivity.

B10 - The Group Wide Examination Approach for Multinational Insurer Groups and Holding Companies
Don Carbone, CFE and Joseph Fritsch, CFE • The INS Companies
This session will address the evolution of insurance regulators’ oversight of large, multinational, multidisciplinary insurer groups and how the model act on group wide supervision is impacting the scope and direction of the financial examination of these groups.

B11 - Risk-Focused Analysis and Coordination—The Relationship Between the New RF Analysis Process, RF Examinations and Best Practices in Working Together
Pat Gosselin, CFE • New Hampshire Department of Insurance
John Humphries, AES, CFE • Risk & Regulatory Consulting, LLC
Phil Schmoyer, AES, CFE • Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP
The true deliverable of any examination is a thorough understanding of the company. To be effective, every EIC must work closely with the assigned analyst and take the Department’s understanding to another level.

B12 - Security Landmine - No Cyber Security Awareness Training in the Workplace
Jerry Wynne, CISO • BCBSND
Too many IT executives assume that everyone from the staff level to the board level knows the risks of phishing and malware attacks. Jerry Wynne talks about the risks and what companies must do to have an effective cybersecurity training program.

B13 - Ethics and Its Evil Cousin Fraud: Proven Practical Actions for Every Examination
John Hall • Hall Consulting, Inc.
Every organization leader preaches the importance of ethics. All also call for anti-fraud defenses and controls. Okay, so then why do ethical breaches and outright fraud occur so often in business. Something is definitely missing and we know what it is. In this session, you’ll learn practical proven steps for meaningful assessment of every insured’s pro-ethics and anti-fraud business environment. We’ll also cover the appropriate reaction to weaknesses identified and their critical impact on examination steps.

B14 - NAIC Financial Analysis Solvency Tools Update (FAST Update)
Jane Koenigsman • NAIC
This session will provide an overview of new and enhanced NAIC Financial Analysis Solvency Tools available to state insurance regulators for use in solvency monitoring, provide practical examples to demonstrate application of these tools in the risk-focused analysis approach and preview upcoming enhancements currently being developed.
Ballroom M  B15 - Reinsurance and Alternative Risk Strategies, Including a Refresher on Risk-Transfer Requirements
Darin Benck, CFE and Chris Rushford, CFE • Risk & Regulatory Consulting, LLC
During this session, we will discuss the differences between traditional reinsurance and alternative risk-transfer methods, along with supply and demand factors impacting the reinsurance and alternative marketplace. We'll also discuss relevant statutory accounting guidance.

Desert Vista AB  B16 - We Need What We Need – How to Get It •
Jenny Jeffers, AES • Jennan Enterprises, LLC | John Tannahill • J. Tannahill & Associates
Jerry Wynne, CISO • BCBSND
More and more companies are reluctant to provide information needed to complete review needed for examination. This session will be a dialogue to discuss some of the issues and how they may be handled.

2:30pm – 2:50pm Break
Prefunction

2:50pm – 3:40pm BREAKOUT SESSIONS
Ballroom M  B17 - NAIC Group Capital Calculation (GCC)
Louis Felice, CFE • NAIC
Get the latest updates on the group capital assessment tool being developed by the Group Capital Calculation Working Group, including some issues and challenges faced in its development. Also presented will be its connection to and distinctions from the global Insurance Capital Standard (ICS) aggregation method being advanced to the IAIS by U.S. State Regulators.

Ballroom NOP  B18 - Understanding and Utilizing SOC 1 and SOC 2 Reports in an Examination
Annette Knief, CFE and Don Sirois, CFE • The INS Companies
Quite a few insurance companies use outside third parties to provide functions like data, claims, and premium processing and investment management and custodianship. However, using such a third-party, or a service organization, does not absolve the insurer’s management of responsibility for risks. This session will discuss the differences between SOC 1 and SOC 2 reports, and how examiners should understand the uses and limitations of each.

Desert Vista AB  B19 - Separate Accounts
Barry Lupus, CFE and Barry Armstrong, CFE • The INS Companies
In the past, financial examiners have given little attention to Separate Accounts during their examinations. However, are there hidden risks associated with these balances that examiners should be aware of?

Desert Vista DE  B20 - Current and Emerging Technology Risks Including Meltdown and Spectre •
John Tannahill • J. Tannahill & Associates
This session will include discussions of several existing and emerging threats and risks in the IT world including ransomware, meltdown and spectre, IoT, Cloud risks, etc.

3:40pm – 3:50pm Break
Prefunction

3:50pm – 5:05pm GENERAL SESSION
Ballroom I J K L  B21 - Targeting Your Time for Tangible Results
Joy Baldridge, CPC, CSC • Baldridge Seminars International
Ever wish you had more time to get more done in your day? How would you like to reclaim 3-5 hours each week? In this highly engaging and informative session you will learn innovative ways to be more efficient and effective. You will leave with an abundance of life-changing tangible tools.
TUESDAY, JULY 17

6:30am - 8:00am  Breakfast
8:00am – 5:00pm  Registration

7:55am – 8:45am  BREAKFAST ROUNDTABLES
Ballroom I

C1 - Modeling “To Model or Not-to-Model: an Open Discussion with a CRO and a Regulator”
Elisabetta Russo • NAIC
Dr. Paul Walker, PhD., CPA • Executive Director
Center for Excellence for ERM, St. John's University, Tobin College of Business
As the DOIs get deeper into the ORSA reviews, they need to address more technical and quantitative issues to come to a conclusion on how big the risks reported in the ORSA are and how much surplus the insurer is willing to put at risk. What are the pros and cons of building an internal capital model and how should it be reviewed by a regulator? What is the role of a CRO in the development, use and review of the models? How far should the modeling go and when is a model too-big-to-be-used by an insurer and too-big-to-be-reviewed by a regulator?

Ballroom L

C2 - Financial Condition Examiners Handbook Update
Miguel Romero and Jacob Steilen • NAIC
During this session, examiners will learn about the recent updates to the Financial Condition Examiners Handbook. Specific topics will include a discussion of new guidance for examining insurers with Principle-Based Reserves, review of insurers in run-off, and review of insurers who have redomesticated between exams.

Ballroom M

C3 - Evaluating Liquidity and Valuation Risk of Affiliated Investments
Roshi Fekrat, CFE, Prashant Panavalli, AFE and Micah Rivera, CFE • Dixon Hughes Goodman LLP
The valuation and liquidity of affiliated investments lends itself to complexity. Valuation is affected by the type of entity owned and in the manner in which the entity is owned whether it be a direct or indirect relationship. In addition, since these securities are in the private placement market, liquidity is a legitimate concern.

Ballroom J

C4 - Cyber Risk: Present, Future and Ever-Changing Impact for Industry and Regulators
Daniel Bryde and Francois Houde, CFE, AES • Carr, Riggs & Ingram, LLC
Cybersecurity is not going away! This session will discuss the basic impact of cybersecurity on companies, its impact on regulators and the new trends in this field.

8:45am – 8:55am  Break  (Networking)

8:55am – 10:10am  BREAKOUT SESSIONS
Ballroom M

C5 - People are Different More Than Difficult
Joy Baldridge, CPC, CSC • Baldridge Seminars International
Field examiners and analysts struggle with dealing with a vast array of interpersonal interactions in their day-to-day operations. To conquer the pitfalls of personalities that manifest during audits, and defuse tense situations, you will learn a new approach, as well as proven best practices, on how to successfully interact with the 10 most potentially difficult types of people. Specific examples will be given on how to handle each type with the utmost professionalism and ease. This session is highly engaging, insightful and filled with an abundance of tangible takeaways that can be immediately implemented.
Cybersecurity attacks continue to plague companies around the globe. Recent litigation and regulatory action have demonstrated that the responsibility for maintaining a company's cybersecurity rests with the board of directors. Regulators have also taken action against companies affected by data breaches, reminding directors that cybersecurity is not merely a question for IT personnel, but rather a high priority issue that must be addressed from the top-down. Rather than being compelled to act through litigation or regulatory action, boards should be proactive and create company-wide cybersecurity protocols that would regularly test the company’s cybersecurity systems, train its employees in cyber risk-management, establish a data breach response plan, and manage relationships with third-party service providers.

Change is one of the few constants in the reinsurance industry, which is perennially confronted with new economic, technological, socio-political and environmental risks. Some of these risks we are familiar with, some are new. Most are increasingly interdependent. To use historical data to assess tomorrow’s exposure is not enough—at least not in such an evolving environment. The insurance industry needs to constantly monitor the risk landscape and adapt its behavior, market conduct and product portfolio.

A discussion of access control and the importance of making the access fit the role. Additional emphasis will be on elevated access control.

Elisabetta Russo • NAIC
Dr. Paul Walker, PhD., CPA • Executive Director
Center for Excellence for ERM, St. John’s University, Tobin College of Business
Although insurers now have to disclose their risks and ERM practices to state insurance regulators, ERM was not invented by insurers, nor by banks. Indeed, it has been an important business tool to identify and manage risks by other industries for a long time, well before Form F and ORSA requirements were introduced. How is ERM utilized outside the financial service industry and what lessons can insurers and insurance regulators learn on how to develop and embed ERM into the operations so that it becomes a real business tool? NAIC staff will interview a seasoned risk practitioner that has been on the front line of assisting a variety of organizations with their ERM frameworks, from design to roll-out. Join us in this informative and entertaining overview of the world of risk management outside insurance.

D1 - 2017 Transcendent Catalyst or Vaporware? Threats and Opportunities from InsurTech
Bill Goddard • Day Pitney LLP

I would like to discuss the strengths and weaknesses of many of the InsurTech business plans now in operation or being funded. Some of these plans have closely coordinated with state insurance regulators and some have ignored regulators altogether. Many large insurers have committed significant amounts of capital to these ventures while returns remain in the distant future. In the era of risk-focused examination, it is important to ask what risks these ventures pose for solvency, cybersecurity and reputation of individual companies and the insurance industry. This session will review the business plans and regulatory approaches of high profile InsurTech ventures and some of the ethical quandaries they pose for insurers. It will conclude with two case studies that examine when things go right and when things go totally wrong.

Charles Therriault, CFA
Director of Securities Valuation Office
NAIC

Charles Therriault holds an MBA from the University of Hartford and a BS in Finance from the University of Connecticut. He is also a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charterholder. He rose to Assistant Vice President in the Private Placements group at Citigroup performing credit analysis on the Travelers insurance division investments. Prior responsibilities at Citigroup included implementing a private equity investment management and accounting platform and managing a portfolio analytics & performance attribution group. After Citigroup he joined Washington Mutual Corporation as a First Vice President, working on mortgage-servicing rights valuation and analytics. He then took a position at BNY Mellon and was a Managing Director in the Government Solutions group managing various scale initiatives supporting the U.S. government’s financial stability programs and other work for various U.S. government agencies. In 2013, Charles was appointed as the Director of the NAIC’s Securities Valuation Office managing the credit quality assessment and valuation, in compliance with regulator adopted policies, of securities owned by state regulated insurance companies as well as supporting state insurance regulators on investment issues.

Edward Toy
Senior Technical Policy Advisor,
Capital Markets Macro Prudential Surveillance
NAIC

Edward L. Toy works with state insurance regulators in the development of tools for oversight of the insurance industry as they relate to investment portfolios. He coordinates with other NAIC staff and state insurance regulators on matters impacting financial/solvency regulation of insurers and capital markets. He is also chair of the Macro-prudential Policy & Surveillance Working Group of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors. In addition, he supports the NAIC’s representative to the Financial Stability Oversight Council, and is a member of FSOC’s Systemic Risk Committee. Prior to his current role, he founded and served as Director of the NAIC’s Capital Markets Bureau for eight years, during which he was responsible for greatly expanding the NAIC’s efforts in monitoring and analyzing investment markets, their impact on insurer portfolios and state insurance regulation.

Prior to joining the NAIC he was a portfolio manager and director of trading with Artesian Capital Management, a hedge fund focused on arbitrage opportunities in corporate credit. In particular, the firm focused on basis trading with a short bias in industries and companies that were susceptible to event risk.

Before joining Artesian, he was a managing director at Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association (TIAA), which along with its affiliate, the College Retirement Equities Fund (CREF), was one of the largest financial services organizations in the U.S. and the largest retirement system in the world. His last responsibility at TIAA was as portfolio manager for the convertible securities group. He launched the group in October of 1997 and was successful at building and actively managing a portfolio of publicly registered or 144A convertible securities. Total assets under management grew to approximately $1.5 billion at its peak in 2005. Immediately prior to those responsibilities, Ed was part of the Structured Finance Group where he was primarily responsible for the group’s non-agency mortgage-backed investments. In addition to his investment responsibilities, Ed also managed the credit risk and prepayment cash flow modeling functions for the mortgage-backed portfolio. From 1983 to 1988, Ed was a generalist in the Private Placement Group. From 1988 to 1990 he managed the division’s private placement high yield effort. In 1992, Ed served as special assistant to the chairman of TIAA-CREF.

While with TIAA, Ed was very active in the regulatory arena working with the NAIC and the NAIC’s Securities Valuation Office. Over that period, Ed’s involvement included work on the Model Investment Law, the replication (synthetic assets) project and various efforts to improve regulatory effectiveness. He was also instrumental in industry efforts assisting in the development of regulatory guidance for a variety of asset types. He chaired the Asset Valuation Issues Committee of the American Council of Life Insurers.

Barbra Varnhagen, J.D.
The Center for Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight

Barbra Varnhagen joined the Medical Loss Ratio program at CMS’ Center for Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight (CCIIO) in August 2010, where she drafted significant portions of 45 CFR Part 158, the regulation implementing Section 2718 of the Affordable Care Act, and has been an integral part of MLR policy development and the development of the MLR auditing procedures and field examination handbook. Barbra manages the first national MLR auditing and compliance program and works with states that perform MLR reviews. Barbra also assists the Policy Form Review and State Engagement Coordination teams at CCIIO. Prior to joining CCIIO, Barbra spent ten years as in-house counsel at Great-West Life & Annuity Insurance Co (the healthcare division was acquired by Cigna in April 2008) and also served as the Director of Healthcare Operations Compliance, Claims Policy, Litigation Support, Appeals & Grievances, and the Medicare Secondary Payor program. Barbra received her J.D. from New York University.

SOFE is a not-for-profit educational and credentialing organization. As a professional association, SOFE’s members are competitors, suppliers and customers of one another. SOFE meetings and functions shall not be used as a forum to obtain unlawful individual company advantages or to achieve anti-competitive objectives for any segment of SOFE’s membership. It is the policy of SOFE to comply strictly with all laws applicable to SOFE’s activities, and SOFE may be held responsible for unlawful conduct by its members and agents. Accordingly, SOFE requires members and agents to avoid any conduct that might violate, or would create the appearance of a violation of, the antitrust laws. The antitrust laws seek to preserve a free competitive economy. Generally, the antitrust laws prohibit unreasonable restraints of trade, such as conspiracies and agreements between competitors to engage in price-fixing, bid-rigging and customer or market allocation, and group boycotts or concerted refusals to deal with competitors, suppliers or customers. In particular, the discussion of competitively-sensitive subjects at SOFE meetings and functions, such as comments about current or future pricing for one’s services, standardization of service contract terms, allocation of markets, and joint refusals to deal, might be interpreted as evidence of an unlawful objective, even though the intent of the parties was entirely legitimate. Participants should take care to avoid inadvertent discussion and recording in meeting notes, e-mails and related correspondence of competitively-sensitive topics and potentially ambiguous statements. The First Amendment constitutional right of free speech, along with the Noerr-Pennington Doctrine protection to petition the government, allows SOFE members and others to discuss general economic and regulatory developments in insurance, individual and joint plans to support or oppose legislation, regulatory actions or judicial proceedings through direct lobbying, campaign contributions, media campaigns, grass-roots activities and litigation. However, providing or gathering specific non-legislative information to or from members must adhere to antitrust compliance guidelines.

SOFE Meeting Site Selection Policy

The SOFE Career Development Seminar (CDS) location selection is made each year by the Future Sites Committee. Committee membership is open to any SOFE member in good standing and consists of both state insurance department employees and contract examiners. Several factors impact the selection of the location of the annual CDS. Site selection is limited to properties that can accommodate 450-500 attendees in one property to maximize the opportunities of members to meet and network. In addition, SOFE focuses on different geographic areas of the country each year to maximize the opportunity of members to attend the seminar. Seminar sites are selected 4-5 years in advance to enable SOFE to negotiate substantially reduced hotel room rates and maximize benefits to SOFE. Also, the seminar dates are scheduled for July which is off-peak in many areas and also help to reduce costs.

Other factors considered during the site selection process include the following:

- Amount of meeting space needed (CDS minimum requirements)
- Number of hotel rooms needed on property (CDS minimum requirements)
- Available overflow hotel options
- Hotel room rate (currently try to keep under $200/night with consideration for per diem members)
- Internet costs and AV
- Food and beverage costs (Contract minimums typically capped at $100k)
- Proximity to airport or other transportation considerations
- Convenience of surrounding areas for evening activities
- Sunday social options
- Value of hotel concessions
